

Designed by Kelly Keitz-Sawinski in
Adobe InDesign
Photoshop
Adobe Illustrator

Bookman Old Style Italic type was used in this book.

Printed by The University of Michigan 2015
Printing Services
United State of America

Art Director Janet Lorch
Editor: Kelly Keitz-Sawinski

Cover and interior photographs by Kelly Keitz-Sawinski
Photographed with a Cannon EOS Rebel T5 1200D

Dedicated to my family and friends.

A

This classic updo with its smooth swept sides and back brushed bangs flows into luscious loose curls. Backbrushing is also known as ruffing.

B

This sophisticated French twist features partings of cascade curls that are rolled back and stacked onto the twist.

This beautiful style combines the sleek Dutch braid with loose waves and curls. The Dutch braid is also known as the reverse French braid.

Modernizing the Bouffant this beautiful style has fullness at the crown and long loose curls. Adding texture to the sleek bangs are three fine braids.

E

This whimsical version of the classic bun overdirects the hair to the side for a casual elegance.

A beautiful Angel braid keeps the hair off the face as it blends with glossy ribbons of curls.

G

This beautiful modern , French braided ,version of the classic French twist,
is adorned with lovely
Barrel curls.

Volumes of hair are created in this modern version of the Bouffant pony tail. Highlighted double braids accessorize the hair like a headband.

This updo with Dutch Crown Braids and tousled bun is a beautiful and romantic way to wear your hair up.

This attractive beauty reflects glossy and polished mounds of spiral curls. The spiral wave was one of the first methods used for waving long hair.

The classic three strand braid is cleverly created into the letter K. And beautiful French braids flow from the sides into a low side bun.

This beautiful and creative side French braid, is designed from the left side of the head into the shape of the letter L.

Luscious Barrel curls
make this updos
impressive movement reflect the sheen of the hair.
Barrel curls are wound
without using a roller.

Beautiful smoothed sides and bangs flow into mounds of tousled curls atop this updo. Back combing is also known as French lacing.

This Grecian Braid is inspired by by the Greeks who French braid the hair in a circular direction to create a simple but elegant updo.

Beautiful soft glossy waves and curls adorn this style. Controlling the size of the curl determines the width of the wave.

Q

This lovely "Shabby Chic" bun with loose curls can be worn on the side or lower part of the neck.

R

This glossy Chic style of the French Twist is the perfect sophisticated updo.

The elegance of this waterfall updo has volumes of loose waves and curls that is styled half up and half down creating a casual sophistication.

Captivating is this beautiful updo which features an elaborate basketweave and long luscious curls.

Crowning this updo with a French braid are luscious curls which abound and surround in this style.

This Asian Persuasion updo features Angel braids and volumes beautiful loose curls.

Artfully done this vertical Finger wave which is reflective of a 1920's style. It was often used as a styling method in the 1930's replacing the marcel iron.

With every hair in place
This beauty of a bun features glossy ribbons of hair shaped into the letter X accented by a braided bun.

y

This updo infuses and-combines a sleek smooth style into an elaborate Fishtail braid, aslo known as the Herringbone braid.

This astounding updo features Corn Rows which are a traditionally an African style and it also intergrates toulsted curls in a sparkled Mohawk hairstyle.

Contributors

Grondins School of Cosmetology
Staff and Students

Miss Marianne

Miss Tracy

Mr. Jacob

Brooke Baldwin

Rachelle Compton

Sara Crane

Sydney English

Bailey Gabbard

Cambria Gillespie

Hailey Lorrison

Katlyn McLaughlin

Emilee O'Connor

Courtney Ross

Kierstin Rouse

Alyssa Veres

Aubree Lawton

